Dear Parents and Carers,

It has been such a pleasure to welcome your children back into school today. I hope you all had a restful and enjoyable summer break.

I would like to take this opportunity to introduce myself as the new Headteacher of Asquith Primary School. It was wonderful to meet some of you at the school gate this morning. I feel extremely honoured, privileged, and excited to be leading Asquith into the next stage of its journey.

As a parent myself to two teenage daughters, I know how important it is that children feel happy and supported, and that they are given every opportunity to achieve their potential in whatever they set their minds to. This is also my goal as Headteacher: to ensure that all children at Asquith thrive both socially and academically, and that they enjoy coming to school each day.

I have worked in education for over 20 years across a range of primary schools, originally in Nottingham City schools, and more recently within the County at the Welbeck Federation, where I spent three days each week as Head of School and two days as Executive Headteacher.

At Asquith Primary School, we are fortunate to have a fantastic team of dedicated and talented staff, as well as wonderful children. I am so excited to be working alongside them all. The needs of our children will always be at the heart of the decisions we make. I believe strongly in providing a warm, welcoming, and safe environment where pupils can engage in creative and meaningful learning experiences. Asquith Primary School has a wonderful sense of community and offers children fantastic wider opportunities—something I am passionate about continuing and developing further.

Please do come and introduce yourself; I will be on the school gate at the beginning and end of each day and would love the chance to get to know you.

Yours faithfully,
